“We Know that Christ is raised and dies no more”

Hymn 296, The Hymnal 1982

Recently I received an e-mail from the Church Pension Group's Office of Research that is assisting the Episcopal Church's Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music in fulfilling its General Convention mandate in Resolution Boo4 to determine whether a revision of The Hymnal 1982 is needed and wanted by the Episcopal Church. All Congregations', music directors, and clergy are invited to participate in the Hymnal Revision Feasibility Study, a landmark research study being conducted via online surveys and focus groups from fall 2010 to spring 2011. As a dutiful Rector I complied in filling out the survey, which was very in-depth. All the while I was asking myself, "Do we really need a new Hymnal?" I realize that over time things do need some up-dating, and I have experienced some distain by people in the congregation for our present official Hymnal. I myself enjoy the Hymnal 1982 and find it very enriching to my spiritual and liturgical worship. In fact, I cringe at the possibility that we might lose important Easter and Christmas hymns, and other popular standard hymns. Liturgical innovation is always a walking on eggshells experience; O' how 1928 I sound! A little known fact of why we as Episcopalians are so particular about "Official Hymnals" is that we take seriously the theological meaning of the TEXTS. In other words, it is not really all about the music. The first objective of the Standing Commission on Church Music in the Preface of The Hymnal 1982 was "to prepare a body of texts which present the Christian faith with clarity and integrity..." What we sing about matters!

As we liturgically approach Easter, I am reminded of the rich theology contained in the texts of the hymns of the Resurrection. At the heart of all the Easter hymns stands the core and bedrock of the Christian faith, "Jesus lives" (hymn 194). As Christians we forget that hymns were really the first "text" of the faith even before the early liturgy, Creeds, or the New Testament. The Apostles and early Christians gathered together to give thanks and worship in celebration for those great acts through which God's people were saved from sin and death by Jesus' passion and resurrection.

In fact, Biblical scholars generally agree that certain passages of the New Testament were early Christian hymns. One of the most well know hymns (also called canticles) in Paul's letters is from Philippians, (2:5-11 NRSV):

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death-- even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Where did Saint Paul get this hymn? Did he compose it, or did he hear it sung by the early Christians in worship? In either case, as a text, it serves as a core like statement (creed) about Jesus and the reason for our faith in him. The earliest kerygma or proclamation of the faith was that "Christ is risen." This is reflected in another hymn found in Ephesians (5:14b): "Sleeper, awake! Rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you." The ancient kerygma is rooted in and continues to be found in the belief in Christ's resurrection and our participation in it through baptism. In baptism we are united with Christ being buried in his death and sharing in his resurrection. Our new life united with our risen Lord stands at the very heart of our Easter celebration. Like the early Christians, their experience of the risen Lord is echoed in our Easter hymns: "Praise we in songs of victory that love, that life which cannot die, and sing with hearts up lifted high: Alleluia!" (Hymn 205) Gathering together to celebrate Holy Week and Easter is always a theological statement and an experiential journey in which we proclaim in song, stories, and ritual the grounding of our faith in Christ and the hope and joy to which we belong. It is very important that we as a Christian community make Holy Week and Easter a high priority in our spring schedule, especially taking time to sing and give thanks for all God has done for us through Christ his Son. Please make every effort to attend all the liturgies of Holy Week. Being together as a community united in worship we create a space for the Holy Spirit to be present in our midst and to open our eyes of faith to see the richness of God's love and plan of salvation borne for us in the death and resurrection of Christ our Lord. Happy Easter!

Stewardship

During April we continue in Lent and prepare for Easter. I hope everyone is taking the time to participate in the 20+1+1 program. Lent should be a period of time when we turn to God and reflect so we can truly enjoy and be a part of the joys of Easter.

This is also an excellent time for all of us to review our stewardship commitment, especially in respect to giving. Jesus knew that where your money is, there your heart will be also. (Luke 12:32-34). Martin Luther said there are three conversions: first the mind, then the heart and finally the pocketbook.

There are many definitions of the term stewardship that it has almost become a cliché or a term that means nothing to anyone. Two definitions that capture the heart of biblical stewardship are:

1. People who have yielded control of their finances to Jesus Christ honor Him in their financial decisions and steward resources that He has provided.

2. Biblical stewardship recognizes that God's resources should be deployed through God's people to accomplish God's mission.

There are many motivational reasons people give today. I will offer five reasons some of which you may identify with in your journey with God.

1. Commitment I give because God's Word says to give. This has been the historical reason to give.

2. Compassion Today one of the frequent reasons for giving is compassion. People give to a particular need or cause because they have a Christ like compassion. This is often called heart-giving.

3. Community Many people give because of a sense of community. They give to a particular project because of its success or the involvement of their friends.

4. Challenge Because of the past abuses of challenged giving, some have rejected this approach. With the resources available today, many people are simply under challenged in their giving. Every day we are challenged to spend our money elsewhere: a new car, a high definition big TV, or other things. I challenge everyone to invest their money in Christ's kingdom and purposes.

5. Critical The final reason I offer is based on critical reasoning and analysis. People give because they believe it is being handled like they would. This requires responsible budgets, full accountability and full disclosure. I believe St. James' does an excellent job in accountability which is required.

I hope each member of St. James' identifies with several of these reasons for giving. I believe we can reach the stewardship potential of St. James' if we each recognize the different motivational reasons for giving.

It is never too late to make a pledge to support St. James'. Please keep your pledge current.

Enjoy your Lenten trip and a Happy and Joyous Easter. I invite all members of St. James' to fully participate in the services between Palm Sunday and Easter.

YOUR TALENT IS GOD'S GIFT TO YOU.
WHAT YOU DO WITH THAT TALENT IS YOUR GIFT TO GOD.

A Minute with Marci Hanners

JUNIOR CHOIR

Something new has been added to our Worship Service! On the last Sunday of each month our new Junior Choir will be vested and singing at the 10:15 service.

The first appearance was on February 27th and they were terrific!

Rehearsals are held each Sunday between the end of Sunday School and the end of the 10:15 service. The Junior Choir is open to any child who enjoys singing, and is between 8 and 12 years old. Reading music is not necessary, but being able to read words is.

The Junior Choir is being directed by Marci Hanners and Tammy Matula. If you have any questions, please talk to us. We hope to see the choir grow in size, and continue to bring joy to the Congregation.

BOOK SALE

The annual Book Sale will be held during the Great American Weekend. Keep this in mind as you spring clean your book shelves! As always, the Book Table is up and running. Donations are always welcome. Contact Marci Hanners if you have a particularly large donation. We can begin accepting larger donations in June. As always we particularly LOVE Children's Books, Non Fiction, Soft cover Fiction and Vintage books. We ask that you NOT donate Magazines, Encyclopedias, Reader's Digest Condensed or any books that are not in good condition.

BIBLES and PRAYER BOOKS

We will be selling Bibles and Prayer Books along with the Episcopal Handbook on the second Sunday of every month in the vestibule. If you would like to purchase a book on any other Sunday, please see Marci Hanners or Fr Carl. We have Leather and non Leather bound Bibles, personal copies of The Book of Common Prayer, including the combined Prayer Book/Hymnal with a leather cover. Imprinting of names is available at extra cost with 2 week's notice.

ALTAR GUILD

We can hardly believe it, but Lent is upon us. We welcomed Bishop Roskam on March 20th, and we are now thinking ahead to Palm Sunday and Easter! The annual Palm Sunday/Easter Clean-up will be held at 9 AM on April 16th. All Altar Guild members are asked to attend. Additionally, if any parishioners are interested in what Altar Guild does and how we work, feel free to join us that morning and lend a hand. If you have any questions, please see Marci Hanners or Jeanne Healy, co-chairs of the Altar Guild. All willing hands are gratefully welcomed!

Food & Financial donations are always needed for the Food Pantry

The Food Pantry depends on food & financial donations. Please make it a habit to donate a food item each time you come to Church Services or Sunday School. Drop off locations are on the table just inside the back door and the table just before you enter the church, both are labeled Food Pantry Donations. Financial donations may be mailed to The Goshen Ecumenical Food Pantry Inc. c/o John Strobl, 55 Wickham Ave, Goshen, NY 10924. Help us help your neighbors in need.

This month we are collecting Pancake Mix & syrup.

Goshen Ecumenical Pantry Inc.

The next distribution at the Goshen Ecumenical Food Pantry will be April. 9, from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. in the Goshen First Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall at 33 Park Place, Goshen.

Please arrive by 8:45am and be ready to help!

Bagging for distribution and shelf stocking are done at the Goshen Food Pantry, every Tuesday morning at 9:15a.m. For around an hour to hour and a half.

On the fourth Saturday of each month from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. we give youth looking for community service & adults the chance to bag and stock shelves. All are welcome. This month's date is April 23.

The Free Community Dinner at St. James'

The next dinner will be held on April 30, from 5:30-6:30 p.m. in the St. James' Parish Hall. The 4H Montgomery Jewels will be hosting their annual dinner.

Call John Strobl at 294-9004 to lend a helping hand. We open at 4:00 p.m. to get ready for the 5:30 p.m. meal. The dinner is always held the last Saturday of each month. Have you ever come to a Community Dinner?

St. James' Quilting and Sewing Group

Our first meeting will be held this April 13th at 7:00pm. We will be discussing what you would like to achieve with the group and also what the group as a whole hopes to achieve. There will be no need to bring supplies to this meeting, it is just a getting to know you meeting. I will be sending you home with a list of supplies that I hope you can bring with you to the next meeting. If there is a problem with any of the supplies, I will do my best to accommodate you. I will have an extra machine or two available for those who do not have a machine or are unable to carry one. If you have signed up, please look to your email (or mailbox) for more information. Please welcome Jessica Sutton as my second in command. She is bringing a wealth of information and experience to the group! I am very fortunate to have her input and assistance in the running of this group. Thank you Jessica! I am really excited to get this group going! I look forward to meeting with you all on the 13th.

With God's Love,

Malinda Niper

Sunday School News

February was a very full, if short month in our "Fun-Day School." We started off with Jesus Feeds the 5,000 which tied in nicely with the Souper Bowl of Caring. Children brought friends to church on the 13th and had a great time working in teams to build snowmen. We ended the month with a lesson on the Ten Commandments. March was just as busy, and April promise to be so too. During the season of Lent our children will be learning about Sacrifice, Charity and Prayer through lessons and activities that focus on the parables, the Eucharist and Baptism. On Palm Sunday they will prepare a snack bag for their journey through Holy Week. Each item will help them to remember an important part of Jesus' journey on his way to the cross. Finally, Easter Sunday brings the return of our Alleluia banners and the annual Easter Egg Hunt. (Donations of candy would be appreciated).

I hope you all had the opportunity to visit our "Fun-Day" School booth at the Stewardship Expo. Please consider helping out with this important and fun ministry. No experience is necessary, just a love of children and our Lord. For more information, contact Donna Carbone at 355-7228 or dcarbone6703@yahoo. Join us and see what all the excitement is about!

Episcopal Dictionary

Narthex In Greek, the word literally means "a large fennel" (a tall herb). In church architecture, the narthex is an enclosed space at the entry end of the nave of a building; the area in the church building inside the doors and in front of the nave. The narthex is usually enclosed (primarily to provide a buffer between the outside weather and the heating/cooling inside), and is the area where the procession gathers prior to the service.

Nave The main part of a church building; the place where the congregation sits. Probably derived from the Latin word navis, meaning "ship." (As in Noah's ark) In medieval England the derogatory term "knave" (commoner) developed from nave, because the nave is the area of the building where the "common" people sit.

Offertory Most think of the offertory as the time in the worship service where the offering is taken up. The offering of money is part of the offertory, but the offertory also includes the offering of bread and wine that is to be consecrated during the communion, and the offering of "...ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy and living sacrifice." (BCP Page 336.) Or, as Rite II says, "Sanctify us also." (BCP page 363))

Oil Stock A special container designed to hold holy oil used in unction and at baptisms. Oil stocks are usually about as wide as a quarter, and about an inch in length. A cotton ball inside the oil stock holds the holy oil.

The Will and the Way

We've all heard these words of encouragement before – “Where there's a will, there's a way”. Perhaps our parents have said this at times when we were struggling with something, or maybe we've heard these words from a teacher, boss or coach over the years. It's a phrase of perseverance, of not giving up. It tells us to be determined and persistent, that if we have the heart to make it happen, we'll eventually find a way to get it done.

No doubt that our self-will and drive can get us through some tough times and “going that extra mile” can make all the difference in the world when we feel the odds are against us. We've seen athletes give it their all, rescue efforts go to great lengths and years of persistence and effort poured into building better relationships. We hear the words echo, “keep on going, where there's a will, there's a way.”

During Lent we can reflect on these words of determination in a new light as we look back upon the critical events that occurred the days before the crucifixion of our Lord. Each Lenten Season we reread and relive Christ's final earthly walk to the Cross, and approach the days with mixed emotions as on one hand we consider the painful death our Lord endured for us, and on the other, His glorious resurrection to Heaven. This transition can be explained by a will, the Father's Will, and a way, the Way the Lord gave us to follow.

As we recall the events leading to Jesus' death on the Cross, let's not forget a crucial decision that our Lord made. As terrible and painful as His death was, He knew what He was facing. He made the choice to do His Father's will. At any moment in time He could have saved Himself from the Cross, but He chose to fulfill and complete the will of His Father.

Why did He do this? We know the answer, He did it for each and every one of us, to save us from sin and offer us everlasting life. His Father's will provided us with the way of our Lord. Let's face it, our own self-will and determination is helpful but certainly has its limits. The only way to truly free ourselves and find our way is to look back upon the day our Lord accepted God's Will to show us the Way beyond this world and into eternity. As Jesus said, “Not my will Father but yours”, which in turn allows us to say to Him, thank you, for by following His Will, you gave us the Way.

Have a blessed Lenten Season,

Dom Perfetti

A note of thanks....

I would like to thank all those that came to the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper. We had a good turnout and actually made just about $100. I would especially like to thank the people who set up and decorated - Jackie, Ed and their helpers. The kitchen workers: serving were Jeanne Meehan and Donna Carbone. Cooks along with myself were Bernie Muller, Robin Purdy and Jessica Sutton. Special thanks to Willie Sutton who made sure we had batter made and eggs broken all well keeping the food stocked in the chafing dishes. Thank you to the kitchen clean up crew of Kit, Ann and Katie, as well as all those who helped break down tables and chairs. Finally, thank you to Marci who did the shopping. If I forgot anyone, I apologize! - Jeannie Healy

Save the date!!!
VBS

July 25th—July 29th
From 6:00-8:30 pm

Vacation Bible School

It's barely spring, but it's time to start planning for Vacation Bible School. This year's theme is SonRock Kids' Camp, Where Kids Build Their Lives on the Rock: Jesus! The dates are July 25th through the 29th, so mark your calendars!

We will, once again, hold an evening VBS from 6:00-8:30 PM since it was so successful last year. The program is open to children who are entering PreSchool through Grade 5, and the cost will remain the same: $25 for a single camper, $20 for each additional sibling. This is an excellent opportunity for teens to earn community service hours. Young people entering Grades 6 & 7 can be Junior Crew Leaders, while older teens lead the campers through the various stations as Crew Leaders.

As always, we are looking for volunteers to help us with this important ministry. You can help out for an evening or two or the entire week. Help with preparations or donations (along with food, we would also like to offer scholarships if needed, and we will also be looking for camping equipment to borrow) are also appreciated.

For more information please contact Donna Carbone at 355-7228 or dcarbone6703@yahoo.com.

HOT CROSS BUNS

These special sweet buns, marked with a symbolic cross, are a fixture on many Easter tables. They are delicious plain; with fresh fruit or split, toasted, and spread with butter and jam.

Yield: Makes 24 buns

ingredients

1 cup warm milk (105°–115°F.)	2 large eggs
two 1/4-ounce packages (5 teaspoons) active dry yeast	1 large egg yolk
1/2 cup plus 1 teaspoon granulated sugar	1/2 cup dried currants
4 cups all-purpose flour	1/3 cup golden raisins
1 1/2 teaspoons ground allspice	2 teaspoons finely grated fresh orange zest
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon	2 teaspoons finely grated fresh lemon zest
1 teaspoon salt	3 tablespoons superfine granulated sugar
1 1/4 sticks cold unsalted butter(1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons)

preparation

In a small bowl stir together milk, yeast, and 1 teaspoon granulated sugar. Let mixture stand 5 minutes, or until foamy.

Into a large bowl sift together flour, allspice, cinnamon, salt, and remaining 1/2 cup granulated sugar. Cut butter into bits and with your fingertips or a pastry blender blend into flour mixture until mixture resembles coarse meal. Lightly beat 1 whole egg with egg yolk. Make a well in center of flour mixture and pour in yeast and egg mixtures, currants, raisins, and zests. Stir mixture until a dough is formed. Transfer dough to a floured surface and with floured hands knead until smooth and elastic, about 10 minutes. Transfer dough to an oiled large bowl and turn to coat. Let dough rise, covered with plastic wrap, in a warm place until doubled in bulk, about 1 1/2 hours.

Butter 2 large baking sheets.

On a floured surface with floured hands knead dough briefly and form into two 12-inch-long logs. Cut each log crosswise into 12 equal pieces. Form each piece into a ball and arrange about 1 1/2 inches apart on baking sheets. Let buns rise, covered, in a warm place until doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes.

Preheat oven to 400°F.

While buns are rising, lightly beat remaining egg with superfine sugar to make an egg glaze. On a lightly floured surface with a floured rolling pin roll out pastry dough into a 20- by 6-inch rectangle (about 1/8 inch thick). With a sharp knife cut rectangle crosswise into 1/8-inch-wide strips.

Brush buns with egg glaze and arrange 2 pastry strips over center of each bun to form a cross. Trim ends of pastry strips flush with bottoms of buns. Bake buns in upper and lower thirds of oven, switching position of sheets halfway through baking, until golden, about 12 minutes. Transfer buns to a rack to cool slightly. Buns may be made 1 week ahead and frozen, wrapped in foil and put in a sealable plastic bag. Thaw buns and reheat before serving. Serve buns warm or at room temperature.

The Back Pew - Jeff Larson

Jesus told his disciples to "WATCH AND PRAY" .. and the time honored tradition of sleeping in church was born. Mt. 26:36-46

The Back Pew - Jeff Larson

THE LAST SUPPER Mt. 26:26-30
Of course breaking bread with Jesus was a good choice for the disciple on the low-carb diet.
